

Shhh!

Gromit's SPONSORED SILENCE

Get ready for the quietest day at home ever!

Gromit doesn't express himself with spoken words, but his facial expressions and body language speak volumes. Can you communicate as well as Gromit, without breaking the silence?

Set up a Facebook Fundraiser or JustGiving page and ask your family and friends to support your challenge by pledging money to keep you quiet.

Good luck and remember... SHHH!
